The Laila Moshiri—Yazdi Memorial Fund, an expanded version of the International Students’ Emergency Fund, was established during a reception held in her memory February 9.

Mr. Mohammad Moshiri—Yazdi, Laila’s father, initiated the memorial fund at the reception held at President Jean Mayer’s house. Also attending the meeting were Moshiri—Yazdi’s son, Abdullah, representatives of the Bursar’s Office where Laila worked, Professor Leila Fawaz of the History Department, and many of Ms. Moshiri—Yazdi’s close friends and fellow Iranian students.

According to Joni Hagieorges, acting director of the International Office, the fund will serve as a rotating loan, for any full-time Tufts student on a foreign visa in need of a short-term loan, for valid emergency purposes. Applicants are required to show reasons for need of the loan and to repay the loan within one month.

All questions about the loan should be referred to Hagieorges at the International Office on Sawyer Avenue.

Moshiri Yazdi, J’82, was struck by an automobile last April 24th while walking across College Avenue near Ellis Oval. She died several days later at Massachusetts General Hospital. The driver of the car was charged with vehicular homicide. The case is still under investigation.
