

Types of collaborative activities covered by affiliation agreements	Description	Process for agreement request and approval
Formation of centers or institutes in collaboration with other institutions, whether for research or educational programs	Agreement describing an intent to form an official center, institute.	PDAC Office of the Provost (SITE) for approval of agreement Contact PDAC@tufts.edu for more information
General expression of intent to collaborate on academic, educational or research activities	Agreement describing an intent to develop cooperative activities another other institution, potentially in multiple areas, but not involve commitment to a specific action or funding, usually memorialized as a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) or Cooperation Agreement.	School/unit and Office of the Provost, in accordance with the Affiliation Agreements Policy Contact MOU@tufts.edu for more information
Degree and certificate programs	Agreements with other institutions for joint degrees, dual degrees, student transfer (articulation) arrangements, pipeline/accelerated degree programs, or for-credit certificate programs.	PDAC Office of the Provost (SITE) for approval of agreement Contact PDAC@tufts.edu for more information
Education/study abroad and student exchange programs	Agreements for credit-bearing study abroad programming, capstones, internships, student exchanges, service learning and other programs abroad, as well as to accept students to attend Tufts.	Office of University Counsel and Office of the Provost Contact MOU@tufts.edu for more information
Co-curricular; capstone; internship education programs	Agreements for domestic and international internships, student research opportunities, service learning and other programs for Tufts students.	Office of the Provost for international programs. Contact MOU@tufts.edu for more information

		School/unit dean for affiliations in the United States
Health sciences residency and hospital affiliations	Agreements with hospitals or clinics for placement of students in residencies, clinical rotations, or other research and clinical programs.	School/unit dean for affiliations in the United States Office of the Provost for international residency and hospital affiliations Contact MOU@tufts.edu for more information
Clinical trials	Agreements with collaborating institutions to carry out clinical trials.	OVPR for all clinical trial agreements. Signature at Tufts level.
Professional education	Agreements with other institutions for Tufts to provide executive education, continuing education, professional development, team building, licensure, and custom programs.	PDAC and Office of the Provost Contact PDAC@tufts.edu for more information
Expanded campus learning programs	Agreements with other institutions to provide programs for non-matriculated participants, including pre-college, pre-K-8, English Language Learning, gap year, lifelong learning, and open enrollment programs.
Faculty and scholar exchange	Agreements between institutions for regular exchange of faculty, scholars and staff between institutions. Visiting scholar/scientist agreements between Tufts and an individual faculty or scholar, or a Tufts faculty/scholar and another institution are NOT Affiliation Agreements and are not subject to the policy.	School/unit dean and Office of the Provost Contact MOU@tufts.edu for more information